

Beyond Beauty Goes International!

Quick update to say that I am now a contributing writer for the international publication Mochni.com! I will have monthly articles on various organic beauty topics, and my first article, "7 Beauty Essentials for a Fresh Kick in the Office" is live!

Mochni is based out of Hamburg, Germany and focuses on organic beauty, eco fashion, and health and wellness. It's also celebrating 1 year this month! Mochni has contributing writers from all around the world, and I am glad to say I'm in good company - find me amongst the super cool contributors here! I love when women from all over come together to support a better world :)

Don't forget to read my first article here!

xx
